

June 2010

		1 Draw 3 different shapes that each have 4 sides.	2 Count by 5's to 50.	3 How many dots are on one die? On two dice?	4 Write 3 number sentences that equal 10.	5 List as many things as you can that come in pairs.
6 Write 3 ways a triangle & a square are different.	7 Make up your own math activity today.	8 Write your phone number and find the sum.	9 Show two different ways to make 50 cents.	10 Write 3 number sentences that equal 0.	11 Write 3 addition problems that equal today's date.	12 Find all the even numbers on the calendar.
13 Draw a picture using triangles, circles, and squares.	14 Count by 2's to 20.	15 Write 5 numbers that are less than 50. Circle the largest one.	16 Draw or make a clock that shows your favorite time of day.	17 Collect 10 outside objects and sort them into 2 groups.	18 Find 3 things that are each less than 5 inches long.	19 Count how many Mondays are in June.
20 Make a pattern that has 2 shapes and 2 colors.	21 How many shoes are in your closet?	22 If you had $100, tell what you would do with it.	23 Pick 4 numbers & put them in order from greatest to least.	24 How many toes are there in your family? Draw a picture.	25 Find 3 ways to make 15 cents.	26 Find all the odd numbers on the calendar.
27 What time do you eat dinner? Draw a picture.	28 Make up your own math activity today.	29 What is your favorite number and why?	30 Measure 3 things and draw a picture of them.	A Teaching Two Resource  www.teachingtwo.com		